THANKS

My Brothers and Sisters at Immanuel Lutheran Church, Thank you all for your generous support to Concordia Seminary in St. Louis, and thank you especially for the generosity you have shown me through your financial support. What you are doing for me is so encouraging and kind as I study to become a pastor in the LCMS. I'm not sure if you have supported students through the AAS program in previous years, but I want you to know that it truly does mean a lot to me, and it truly does relieve a great deal of financial stress off my shoulders. So I thank you for helping to share in and lift the burden as I prepare and study to enter the pastoral office in the LCMS. I know it's a significant investment on your part, and it just leads me to thank God that He as worked so mightily in the lives of His people. Thank you for investing in the future of His church and in me as I prepare for a long life of ministry.

I want to introduce myself to you as so that you can put a face and a story to the name. I am 25 years old and the youngest child of three. I have a an oldest sister and an older brother. Both are still living near my parents in the suburbs of Atlanta, Georgia which is where I also grew up. I lived there pretty much for the first 21 years of my life. In fact, moving to Concordia in St. Louis a few years ago was the first time I was ever old enough to remember moving homes...God has always been so good to me. And He just keeps proving Himself as He puts more and more people in my life who support me and pray for me. I thank Him, and I thank you all, too. I hope this didn't go too long. I hope to hear back from you some time this year. But if not, I'm sure I'll be reaching out again...for another nice update. Thank you again.

Your brother in Christ— Alan Mueller
